

KEYS TO INFORMED GIVING

Will & Estate Gifts

Wills can be a simple and safe way of giving to The JESUS Film Project®. A gift made through your will provides a legacy which will help reach future generations for Christ. You have the joy of knowing that because of your foresight, many people will come to know Christ!

You can make an estate gift by having an attorney write a new or replacement will, or by just simply adding a paragraph (codicil) to your existing will. A codicil (paragraph) can specify that a percentage, a dollar amount, the remainder of an estate, or a property be given to The JESUS Film Project after your death. Adding a codicil gift to your existing will is easy and inexpensive.

Following are examples of the language that your attorney might use to provide for The JESUS Film Project of Campus Crusade for Christ, Inc. in your will or codicil to your will.

You should always consult an attorney in the preparation of a will or other estate planning document. Probate is controlled by state law rather than federal law. It is advisable to consult an attorney who knows the laws of the state where you live or where your property is located.
