

2016 Financial Highlights

God has called Jesus Film Project, as a steward of many generous gifts, to the highest standards of financial accountability. As a ministry, we answer not only to those who invest in the work, but also ultimately to God.

In 2016, funds received were used to support people who share the gospel, to supply evangelistic tools, to develop new tools that present JESUS and related products, to follow up with those who respond, to plant churches and to equip and mobilize partners.

“I do not say this because I am seeking a gift. Rather, I seek the credit that abounds to your account”
(Philippians 4:17, New English Translation).

No More HIV

Rejila intently watched the screen playing Magdalena. She knew the same pain as the woman with the issue of blood. She knew the discouragement of spending all her money on doctors only to find they had no answers for her. She knew the public disgrace associated with her disease. As an HIV-positive Muslim woman, she had nowhere to turn. And when she saw Jesus heal the woman in the film, she believed Christ could heal her too. The church planter at the showing prayed with Rejila to receive Christ and be healed. The next time she went to the doctors, they could find no trace of HIV in her blood.

Arrested and Forbidden to Travel

The authorities grilled Pastor Rajiv* with questions after throwing him in jail. “How much are you paying the villagers to become Christians? What evil things are you teaching them?” They kept him in prison from noon until 10:00 that night. Upon being released from jail, they told Rajiv not to travel to other villages and start more churches. Because he was being watched closely, he submitted. But he didn’t stop the ministry—Rajiv just changed strategies. Instead, he trained 22 lay leaders to share Christ using JESUS and begin meeting with believers to help them grow in their faith. Rajiv now oversees ministry in 45 villages, and 40 of them have established prayer groups or churches. The prohibition to travel forced him to multiply his own efforts, and so God has multiplied His church.

New Hope Fuels New Passion

At 21 years old, Upen Gosai began a relationship with Christ after a church planter showed him the JESUS film. Over the next few years, Upen matured in his faith and forsook the Hindu idol worship and animal sacrifice he participated in as a child. Through his example and personal testimony, his whole family came to accept Christ. One Northeast India leader says of Upen’s passion for Christ, “He is very aggressively sharing the gospel and shows the JESUS film wherever he gets an opportunity.” Now an active lay leader for his village, he has started two Prayer-Care-Share groups, which, by God’s grace, will one day become healthy churches.
